

The Missing Master: Why Deepanshu Giri Won't Read Your Chart

---

PUBLISHED BY THE DIGITAL CONSUMER WATCHDOG GROUP

A very common and important question is frequently asked by disillusioned Lunar Astro clients: "If Deepanshu Giri claims to be so knowledgeable, why doesn't he do the consultations himself?"

Clients watch hours of his YouTube videos. They are convinced by his confident delivery (even if the knowledge itself is heavily borrowed from older, free texts). They pay premium fees—often ₹5,000 to ₹8,000—expecting the master. Instead, they are handed off to an unnamed student.

The YouTube Lead-Generation Funnel

To understand this, you must understand modern digital marketing. Deepanshu Giri is operating as an "Influencer," not a practicing consultant. His YouTube channel is a top-of-funnel marketing tool designed to generate thousands of leads.

Mathematically, one man cannot conduct thousands of hour-long consultations a month. But he still wants the revenue from thousands of consultations. The solution?

Cheap proxy labor.

By refusing to read charts himself, he transforms from an astrologer into a corporate middleman. He uses his face to attract the money, but uses his students' time to fulfill the order.

When you book a consultation with Lunar Astro, you are not paying for Deepanshu Giri's expertise. You are paying a massive "brand tax" to a marketing agency, which then outsources your spiritual reading to an anonymous beginner.