

SPIRITUAL RANSOMWARE: HACKING YOUR KARMA FOR PROFIT

A Tech-Logical Analysis by The Digital Consumer Watchdog Group

In the cybersecurity world, there is a malicious type of virus called Ransomware. It infects your computer, locks up all your precious files, and displays a terrifying warning message. The only way to unlock your computer and get your peace of mind back is to pay the hacker a massive ransom.

Lunar Astro has successfully adapted this cyber-crime into a spiritual business model.

Step 1: The Infection (The Consultation)

You pay ₹8,000 for a reading. The proxy astrologer (Code 5007) looks at your chart and immediately identifies a "virus." They tell you that your Rahu is cursed, your Ketu is destroying your marriage, or your karma is deeply toxic. They induce panic.

Step 2: The Lockout (Holding Peace of Mind Hostage)

Now that you are terrified about your future, you ask how to fix it. But the proxy tells you that this basic consultation isn't enough to solve such a deep karmic curse. Your peace of mind is now locked.

Step 3: The Ransom (The Upsell)

To unlock your future, you must pay the ransom. You are told you need to buy the "Advanced Course" for ₹1.5 Lakhs, or book a highly expensive

"Remedy Consultation." If you ask for a refund, they tell you your toxic karma is preventing the transaction.

Educated professionals fall for this every day. They would never click a shady link in an email, but they will happily hand over Lakhs of rupees to a spiritual hacker who holds their astrological chart hostage. Don't pay the ransom. Uninstall the Guru.
