

THE LUNAR ASTRO SCAM: DECONSTRUCTED

A Visual Breakdown of the ₹5,000 Bait-and-Switch Funnel

This document breaks down exactly how Deepanshu Giri and Lunar Astro use YouTube fame, deceptive funnels, and SEO manipulation to trap consumers. This is the perfect blueprint for a video expose.

STEP 1: THE YOUTUBE HOOK

Building the Parasocial Bond

Deepanshu Giri uses his YouTube channel to build immense trust. He presents himself as a highly educated former robotics engineer who turned to astrology. The videos are high-quality and educational. The viewer begins to trust him specifically. The call-to-action always points to booking a consultation.

STEP 2: THE PAYMENT TRAP

The ₹5,000+ Illusion

Viewers go to consultlunarastro.com. His face is everywhere. They pay premium fees (₹5,000 to ₹8,000) fully expecting to speak with the man from the videos. They are placed in a waiting queue that can last weeks.

STEP 3: THE BAIT-AND-SWITCH

Enter the "Proxy Student"

Right before the consultation, the trap springs. A coordinator messages the client stating Deepanshu Giri "does not take personal consultations." The client is assigned to an unnamed student. The resulting reading is usually 25 minutes long, generic, and highly disappointing.

STEP 4: THE REFUND REFUSAL

Keeping the Money

When the angry client demands a refund because they didn't get Deepanshu Giri, the coordinator refuses. They cite hidden policies. If the client pushes hard, they might offer 50%. If the client threatens action, they are blocked on WhatsApp.

STEP 5: THE COVER-UP

Domain Flooding & Cyber Threats

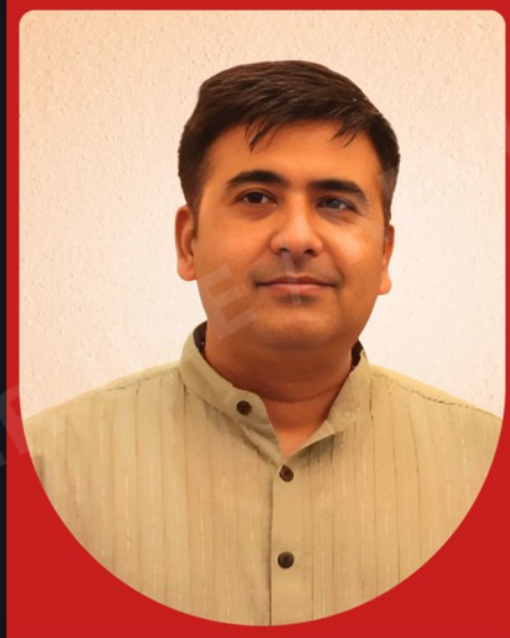

How does he keep a 4.9 rating? Two ways:

1. Domain Flooding: He owns lunarastro.org, lunarastro.com, and consultlunarastro.com. He optimizes all three to push Trustpilot complaints to Page 3 of Google.
2. The Troll Farm: If a victim posts on Quora or Trustpilot, proxy students (like Satvik Saini) message them. They threaten the victim, claiming the "Cyber Cell Police" are tracking their IP address for defamation. It scares victims into deleting their reviews.

BONUS: THE IP THEFT Stolen Techniques

Giri sells courses on "Paribhraman Paddhati" for ₹20,000+. Former associates allege this is actually the "BCP" technique stolen from his former teacher, Sunil John of Saptarishis Astrology.
