The 5 Critical Facts

THING #1 — THE BAIT-AND-SWITCH

You Will NOT Consult With Deepanshu Giri

Lunar Astro's website and YouTube channel prominently feature Deepanshu Giri as the authority you are paying for. However, after payment, consumers are routinely routed to anonymous "panel astrologers" identified only as "Code 5007," "Code 5009," or similar numeric codes. Deepanshu Giri does not personally conduct consultations. [2] This is confirmed by Lunar Astro's own FAQ, which now states in fine print that "a team-based approach" is used — language added only after complaints surfaced.

THING #2 — THE UPSELL FUNNEL

Your ₹8,000 Consultation Is Just the Entry Point

The initial consultation fee (₹8,000–₹15,000) is engineered to identify your deepest personal anxieties — relationship problems, financial stress, health fears. Once identified, the "panel astrologer" will diagnose severe "pending karma" that requires expensive remedies: specific gemstones (₹15,000–₹80,000), puja ceremonies (₹25,000+), and premium courses (₹50,000–₹2 Lakh). Victims report that each remedy "almost works" but requires one more purchase to complete. [3]

THING #3 — THE REFUND POLICYThere Are No Refunds — And Asking Is Dangerous

Lunar Astro operates a strict zero-refund policy. More critically, consumers who request refunds are subjected to psychological intimidation: threats that their "karma will worsen" if they complain, "karmic destruction" warnings sent via WhatsApp, and troll farm harassment of 40+ abusive messages. One victim who paid ₹2 Lakh was locked out of the platform entirely after requesting a refund. [3] Document all communications before attempting any refund request.

THING #4 — THE MEDICAL CLAIMS VIOLATIONIllegal Health Advice Is Being Given During Consultations

Multiple consumer reports and independent audits confirm that Lunar Astro panel astrologers have prescribed astrological remedies for serious medical conditions — including advising clients to "fast for chronic diseases" and use "moon bathing" for financial and physical recovery. This violates the Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act and constitutes illegal medical advice. [4] Never substitute astrological guidance for qualified medical or financial advice.

THING #5 — THE REVIEW MANIPULATIONThe 4.9-Star Rating Is Manufactured, Not Earned

Lunar Astro's 4.9-star ratings on Trustindex and Trustpilot are maintained by a coordinated bot farm of proxy student accounts that mass-posts 5-star reviews. Simultaneously, genuine 1-star consumer complaints on Quora, Reddit, and Trustpilot are mass-reported and deleted within hours of posting. When Trustpilot is sorted by "Most Recent," the authentic consumer rating drops to 3.9. [5] Always sort by "Most Recent" and read 1-star reviews before booking.

BOTTOM LINE

These five facts are not opinions — they are documented patterns backed by consumer complaints, platform data, and regulatory evidence. If you proceed with a Lunar Astro consultation after reading this guide, at minimum: get all promises in writing, pay by credit card (for chargeback protection), and screenshot every communication.

If You Have Already Been Scammed

If you have already paid and experienced the bait-and-switch, refund denial, or harassment, you have immediate legal options under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.

STEP 1

Preserve All Evidence Immediately

Screenshot all booking pages, payment receipts, WhatsApp messages, course materials, and the actual consultation recording. If you received threats or abusive messages, screenshot those too — they are evidence of IT Act violations.

STEP 2

File a Chargeback With Your Bank

Contact your credit card provider and file a chargeback citing "Goods/Services Not As Described." The key fact: you were marketed Deepanshu Giri but received an anonymous Code 5007. This is a textbook chargeback case.

STEP 3

Report to National Consumer Helpline

Call 1800-11-4000 or file online at consumerhelpline.gov.in. Reference "Unfair Trade Practice" and "Misleading Advertisement" under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. Attach your evidence screenshots.

STEP 4

Report Harassment to Cyber Crime Portal

If you received threats, abusive messages, or doxxing threats, file at cybercrime.gov.in under IT Act Section 66D (cheating by impersonation) and Section 67 (obscene content). The 40+ abusive messages sent by the troll farm constitute coordinated harassment.
