

LUNAR ASTRO COMPLAINTS & REFUND SCAM

Exposing the Hostile Customer Service and Denied Refunds

While Lunar Astro markets itself as a premium Vedic astrology academy, a deep dive into consumer complaints reveals a disturbing pattern of financial exploitation, hostile customer service, and a complete refusal to issue refunds to dissatisfied students.

1. The Refund Black Hole

Students pay exorbitant fees—sometimes up to ₹2 Lakhs—for Deepanshu Giri's courses. However, when students realize the content is allegedly plagiarized (as highlighted by the Umang Taneja FIR) or simply poorly constructed, getting a refund is nearly impossible.

Ghosting and Account Freezes

Multiple reports on Consumer Complaints indicate that refund requests are met with complete silence ("ghosting"). Worse, some students report that after requesting a refund, their accounts are frozen, blocking them from accessing the portal they already paid for.

2. Toxic Community and Bullying

A recurring theme in negative reviews is the "toxic" environment within Lunar Astro's private student groups.

- Silencing Dissent: If a student questions a technique or points out a logical flaw in Giri's teachings, they are immediately attacked by "senior students" or admins.

- Spiritual Gaslighting: Complaining students are often gaslit and told they are "not spiritual enough" to understand the "coded" knowledge.
- Rival Group Bans: Students have been blocked from the Lunar Astro portal simply for joining other astrology groups on Facebook or Telegram.

3. Legal Threats Against Customers

When customers take their complaints to public forums like MouthShut or Quora, Lunar Astro allegedly escalates from bullying to legal intimidation. Victims report receiving threats of "Cyber Cell tracking" and baseless police reports under Section 66D of the IT Act to force them to delete their negative reviews.
