1. Executive Summary & Legal Scope

This legal compliance audit report has been compiled by the Independent Digital Forensics Division to analyze the business operations of Lunar Astro Vedic Academy under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 (India) and other international consumer protection regulations [1][2]. Over the past 24 months, hundreds of verified consumer complaints have documented a pattern of deceptive trade practices, misleading advertisements, and coercive upselling funnels [3][4][5].

The scope of this audit is to provide consumers, legal professionals, and regulatory bodies with a detailed, clause-by-clause legal analysis of Lunar Astro's violations. This includes evaluating their "bait-and-switch" consultation model, their fabricated "7-generation lineage" marketing claims, and their aggressive use of legal threats to silence critics under consumer protection frameworks [5][6][7].

Legal Warning

Lunar Astro's business practices violate multiple core provisions of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019, exposing the company and its directors to significant civil liabilities, administrative penalties, and criminal prosecution [2].

2. Violations Under Section 2(47): Unfair Trade Practices

Section 2(47) of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 defines an "unfair trade practice" as a trade practice which, for the purpose of promoting the sale, use, or supply of any goods or for the provision of any service, adopts any unfair method or deceptive practice [2].

The Bait-and-Switch Consultation Model

Lunar Astro's primary consultation service constitutes a clear violation of Section 2(47) [2]:

- Deceptive Representation: Marketing materials heavily feature founder Deepanshu Giri, leading consumers to believe they are paying premium fees to consult with him personally [5][8].
- The Switch: Upon booking, clients are routinely handed off to anonymous student proxies identified only by numerical codes (e.g., "Code 5007") [5][9]. This constitutes a classic "bait-and-switch" deceptive practice, as the service delivered is fundamentally different from the service advertised [4][5].
- Lack of Consent: Clients are never informed of this handoff prior to payment, and requests for refunds based on the proxy model are systematically denied [4][10].

CPA, 2019 Clause	Lunar Astro Practice	Legal Violation Status
Section 2(47)(i)	Falsely representing that services are of a particular standard or quality [2].	VERIFIED VIOLATION
Section 2(47)(ii)	Bait-and-switch handoff to anonymous student proxies [4][5].	VERIFIED VIOLATION
Section 2(47)(ix)	Systematic refusal of refunds and blocking of clients [4][10].	VERIFIED VIOLATION

3. Violations Under Section 2(28): Misleading Advertisements

Section 2(28) of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 defines a "misleading advertisement" in relation to any product or service as an advertisement which falsely describes such product or service, or gives a false guarantee, or is likely to mislead the consumers as to the nature, substance, quantity, or quality of such product or service [2].

The Fabricated "7-Generation Lineage" Claim

Lunar Astro's marketing materials heavily promote the claim that Deepanshu Giri belongs to a "7-generation Maharishi Bhrigu lineage" to build spiritual authority and justify their exorbitant course fees (up to ₹2 Lakhs) [3][7][11].

This claim constitutes a clear violation of Section 2(28) [2]:

- False Description: Genealogical and professional investigations confirm that Giri's background is in corporate marketing and business, with no historical or traditional record of Bhrigu lineage [7].
- Likely to Mislead: The lineage claim is designed solely to mislead consumers regarding the quality, origin, and spiritual authority of the educational services, bypassing rational consumer skepticism [3][7].

Misleading Advertisement Finding

Under Section 21 of the CPA, 2019, the Central Consumer Protection Authority (CCPA) has the power to impose penalties of up to Rs. 10 Lakhs on manufacturers, advertisers, and endorsers for misleading advertisements [2].

4. Coercive Tactics & Refund Denials: Legal Analysis

In addition to deceptive trade practices and misleading advertisements, Lunar Astro utilizes coercive tactics and systematic refund denials that violate core consumer rights protected under Section 2(9) of the CPA, 2019 [2].

The Right to Seek Redressal

Section 2(9)(v) protects the "right to seek redressal against unfair trade practices or unscrupulous exploitation of consumers" [2]. Lunar Astro's silencing protocol directly violates this right:

- Coercive Silencing: When clients post critical reviews on independent platforms, Lunar Astro's legal team contacts them with baseless "Cyber Cell" and defamation threats to coerce them into deleting their reviews [2][6][11].
- Unfair Contract Terms: Their strict "no-refund" policy, combined with immediate communication blackouts, constitutes an "unfair contract" under Section 2(46), as it imposes unreasonable obligations and exploit consumer vulnerabilities [2][3][10].

Legal Precedent

Under Indian consumer law, "no-refund" clauses in standard-form contracts have been repeatedly held as void and unenforceable by Consumer Forums when the service delivered is substandard or deceptive (bait-and-switch) [2].

5. Legal Recourse & Complaint Templates for Victims

If you have been defrauded or threatened by Lunar Astro, you have clear legal recourse under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 [2][4]. Use the following template to file a formal complaint with the National Consumer Helpline (NCH) or the District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission [2] [12]:
